THE FARMER. Of all pursuits by man invented, The Farmer's make the best contented; His calling good, his profits high, And on his labor all rely. Mechanics all by him are fed, Of him the Merchant seeks his bread His hand gives meat to every thing. Up from the Beggar to the King; The milk and honey, corn and wheat, Are by his labors made complete. Our clothes from him must first arise To deck the fop and dress the wise; We then by vote may justly state The Farmer's rank among the great; More independent than they all, That dwell upon this earthly ball, Hail, all you Farmers, young and old. Push on your plough with courage bold, Your wealth arises from your clod, Your independence from your God. Since then the plough supports the nation, And men of rank of every station. Let Kings to Farmers make a bow.

And every man procure a plough.
